God has shown you what is good.
What does the Lord require of you?
Only to do justice and be steadfast in love,
and to walk humbly with your God.

*Hymn
“Joyful, Joyful, We Adore You”

Joyful, joyful, we adore you,
God of glory, God of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before you,
Opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness,
Drive the storms of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness,
Fill us with the light of day.

All your works with joy surround you,
Earth and heaven reflect your rays,
Stars and angels sing around you,
Center of unbroken praise,
Field and forest, vale and mountain,
Flowery meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain,
Teach us what our praise should be.

You are giving and forgiving,
Ever blessing, ever blessed,
Well-spring of the joy of living,
Ocean depth of happy rest!
Loving Spirit, Father, Mother,
All who love belong to you;
Teach us how to love each other,
By that love our joy renew.

Mortals, join the mighty chorus
Which the morning stars began.
Boundless love is reigning o’er us,
Reconciling race and clan.
Ever singing, move we forward,
Faithful in the midst of strife,
Joyful music leads us onward
In the triumph song of life.

- Text: Henry van Dyke (1852–1933)
- Music: Ludwig van Beethoven (1770–1827)

Psalm 19:1-7
Sara Sacks '22

Leader: The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament shows forth God’s handiwork.
People: One day tells its tale to another, and one night imparts knowledge to another.
Leader: Although they have no words or language, and their voices are not heard,
People: Their sound has gone out into all lands, and their message to the ends of the world.
Leader: In the deep has God set a pavilion for the sun; it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber; it rejoices like a champion to run its course.
People: It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again; nothing is hidden from its burning heat.
Leader: The law of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.
People: The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart; the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes.
Leader: The fear of the Lord is pure and endures forever; the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
People: More to be desired are they than gold. More than fine gold; sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.

Choral Response
“O God, You Have Called Your Servants”
O God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths untrodden, through perils unknown.
Give us faith to go out with courage, not knowing where we go but that your hand is leading us and your love supporting us. Amen
-Michael Wolniakowski

Hymn
Please remain standing until the recession has left the chapel.

“I Sing the Mighty Power of God”

I sing the mighty power of God
That made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at God’s command,
And all the stars obey.

I sing the goodness of our God
That filled the earth with food;
God formed the creatures with a word,
And then pronounced them good.
Oh, how your wonders are displayed,
Where’er I turn my eye:
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky!

On earth there’s not a plant or flower
But makes your glory known.
The clouds arise and spread their showers
By order from your throne.
All life is but a gift from you
And ever in your care;
Wherever people gather, you,
O God, are present there.

Isaac Watts (1674–1748)

About the Baccalaureate Service
This is an interfaith service, reflecting the diversity of religious life at Princeton University. As its name suggests, the Baccalaureate service is a celebration focused especially on the members of the senior class—those receiving bachelor’s degrees. The Baccalaureate address is one of the University’s oldest traditions. Speakers at Baccalaureate are chosen for their capacity to speak on topics related to human values, broadly considered.

Princeton enjoys the presence of all of the world’s major religious traditions; a single service such as Baccalaureate could never encompass all of them. The students who are leading the service have been selected because of their outstanding contribution to religious life at Princeton; it is their particular traditions that are represented this year.

Please do not take photographs during the service.
University photos will be posted at: commencement.princeton.edu/photos.

Please turn off cell phones and electronic paging devices.
